

Junior Partners In Policymaking

Junior Partners in Policymaking

August 9-12, 10 am – 5 pm in Dover,
DE

Deadline for applications JUNE 1, 2021

Space is limited so register early!

A FREE program aimed at helping young adults ages 15-22 both with and without disabilities get involved in disability advocacy at the local, state, and national levels.

Students are taught valuable skills such as creating an Individualized Education Program (IEP) and how to develop public policy.

Junior Partners in Policymaking is offered every other year since 2005. It was created by the Delaware Developmental Disabilities Council (DDDC).

For additional information and frequently asked questions CLICK HERE.

Lunch and snacks provided.

Download the Brochure Here.

To submit your application online CLICK HERE. You can also mail it in or fax it to:

The Delaware Developmental Disabilities Council

Attention: Stefanie Lancaster

Margaret O'Neil Building, Suite 2

410 Federal Street, Dover, DE 19901

Fax: 302-739-2015